BROOKLYN ALDERMEN TO GO TO JAIL.

Information was sent to Brooklyn yesterday from Albany to the effect that the Court of Appeals had affirmed the decision of the Supreme Court declaring certain members of the Board of Aldemen of 1881 in contempt. These officials defied an injunction of the Supreme Court and voted to override a veto of Mayor Howell respecting the Brooklyn Blevated road. The Board met on December 31, 1881, while the injunction was pending and put the job" through those voting in favor of it being Aldermen Dwyer, McCarthy, Kane, Weir, O'Connell, Casey, Douovan, Le Pine, Doyle, Allison, Schmitt, Waters, Bowers, Roberts, Seaman, Kelly and Armitage. Alaeimen Dimon, Jonesa and Black voted in the negative. The "job" was to alter the route of the Brooklyn Elevated road and give it a large number of streets in which it was not intended at first to extend the road. The offending Aldermen were proceeded againt before Judge Gilbert on January 14, 1882, except Alderman Roberts, of the Twentieth Ward, who pleaded the "baby act" and was purged of contempt, and Alderman O'Connel, of the Ninth Ward, who was sick. The others were adjudged guilty of contempt and were sentenced by Judge Gilbert to each pay $250 fine, and the following terms of imprisonment in the common jail were imposed: Patrick J. Kelly, Phillip Casey, and James Kane, twenty days each: William Allison, William J. LePane, William H. Watts, Benjamin B. Seamen, each twenty-five days; John McCarthy, and William Dwyer, thirty days; James Weir, jr., and Felix W. Doyle, fifteen days; Phillip Schmitt, Thomas Bowers, and Thomas R. Armitage, ten days. They were placed in the Raymond-st, Jail, but were released in a few hours, pending an appeal to the General Term. That decided against them, and an appeal to the court of last resort was taken.

decided against them, and an appeal to the court of last resort was taken.

As soon as the needful papers from Albany are put in the hands of Sheriff Sterman, they will be rearrested. Of the Albarmen who were sentenced all exept Dwyer, Bowers, and Kelly are now members of the Board, and their arrest will deprive the body of twelve of its members, leaving just a quorum for the next lew meetings. The offending Aldermen are hoping that some legal tebnicality will be found to keep them out of jail until after Thanksgiving at least. When they heard the news yesterday they said it was what they expected; but their looks belied their words.

MRS. CROSBY'S ALLEGED ASSAILANT.

MRS. CROSBY'S ALLEGED ASSAILANT.

Private George Allen, of Battery K., 5th Artillery, stationed at Fort Schuyler, who is anspected of being the assailant of Mrs. Markaret A. Crosby, at Throgg's Neck on Friday night, was surrendered to Constable Bradley by the military authorities yesterday at mon, on a warrant charging him with hungiary and folonious assault. He was taken before Justice Bible at West choster and pleaded not guilty. He was then remanded to the lock-up under the Town Hall until Mrs. Crosby and the nurse could be brought to identify him. This will be done this norming.

The prisoner is a tall, slender, light-haired young man, not unprepossessing in appearance. He is twenty-two years of age. His almost smooth face is slightly discolored under the eye; a patch of skin has been scraped from his nose; under his left car is a scratch, and along the left side of his neck is a mark two and one-half inches long with numerous little points where the skin is broken. This is considered by Mrs. Crosby and the nurse as strong evidence against the man. On the other hand his shoulders are neither bruised nor discolored, as they naturally would be after a blow across them which broke the stock of a gun. To a Thibune reporter the prisoner declared his innocence. "On Friday night," he said, "I got drunk with several companions, and after leaving Throgg's Neck, I remember nothing until I found myself at two o'clock in the morning lying hatless on the Wharf at Unionport. One of my companions said afterward that he had fought with me. The hat found is certainly not mine; nor was I in citizen's clothing. Private Wiliam Brown, of Company K., deserted on Friday night, and it is known that he did something similar to this on July 4th at Fort Schuyler. Why has not suspicion fallen on him f When I saw Mrs. Crosoy the other day she was in doubt as to whether! was the man: I have not shaved since a week ago Monday; so you can see that I have no mustache or whiskers. There isn't a man in the company that believes me guilty."

FAILURE OF TWO WELL-KNOWN FIRMS.

Graham & Airkin, wholesale dealers in dry goods at No. 392 Broadway, made an assignment yesterday to Alexander G. Finduey, giving preferences are for borrowed money, and the last two are partially secured by collaterals. The firm have held a good position in the dry-goods trade, and have been in business for about forty years. They were regarded as careful and shrewd merchants, and of undoubted integrity. They retired from the dry-goods undersing the partnership, as they owned considerable real estate ionally. For some years thereafter they had an office in Wali street, doing a brokerage business in commercial paper. In January, 1876, they entered the dry-goods business again, with a capital of about $125.000. They owned considerable real estate in Paterson and Brooklyn, subject to mortgages. They have been paying promptly for putchases in thirty and sixty days, and have shown no weakness. Mr. Graham yesterday attributed the fiablities would not exceed $150,000. He could give no estimate of the value of the assets. In the trade the stock is estimated at from $80,000 to $100,000, besides which there are accounts receivable, and equity in real estate.

Bodge & Smelar, whoresale dealers in rubber goods at No. 21 Park-piace, made an assignment yesterday to Leopold Lithauer, giving preferences to the amount of $14,473. The assignment was brought about by the firm being involved with the Globe Rubber Company, having indorsed its paper to the extent of $28,000. When this became known, the pressure of creditors to get their obligations discounted before they became due was very great. The firm found great difficulty in ascertaining the holders of this paper to ask indulgence. A note for $5,000 feil due yesterday, which they were unprepared to meet. They were afraid of proceedings, which ware threatened in case of non-payment, and to protect the estate, which it is claimed is amply sufficient to pay all debts, they made an assignment. The total liabilities are about $200,000, and are sc FAILURE OF TWO WELL-KNOWN FIRMS.

The mortgage will expire on July 11, 1883. John Lindley is the president, and Edward M. Field secretary and treasurer of the corporation.

THE KENTUCKY LOTTERY PUT TO FLIGHT. One effect of the exposure of the Louisiana Lottery Company's operations in yesterday's IRIBUNE was the interruption of the steps taken by the Kentucky Lottery Company to reestablish its headquarters in this city at or near Dey-st., and Broadway. This lottery has been recently sold to Samuel T. Dickinson & Co., as successors to Simmons & Dickinson, the former having determined to go into the farming business. in Kentucky. The agents of S. T. Dickinson & Co., J. H. Adams and Peter Connolly, had rented rooms at or near the place designated where they proposed issuing lottery tickets and receiving policy books. Yesterday morning, however, they quickly packed up their traps and moved to Jersey City. They discovered about the same time that Pinkerton's desectives had been on the watch for them, and had "located" them. They will issue the tickets and slips from Jersey City as formerly. (Kennehan's) bills around in his pocket. The Supervisor replied that he had as much right to retain possession of the bill as Kennehan had to abstract papers of the Board. Kennehan retorted that he never took any papers. If he had done so, he had as much right to do this as the Supervisor had to retain money belonging to the people of the county. "Do you charge me with being a thief?" asked Supervisor Brinckerhoff, angrily.

"I say that you have money in your possession belonging to the people of this county, and you know it," said Kennehan, excitedly. The other members of the Board interfered and order was restored. The difficulty is supposed to have arisen on account of charges made in The Standard that Supervisor Brinckerhoff collected fees for mileage that he was not entitled to.

MEETING OF STEEL MANUFACTURERS.

A convention of the manufacturers of crucible steel was held yesterday afternoon at the Hoffman House. There were present representatives of the following firms: Hussey, Howe & Co., Park, Brother & Co., Graff, Bennett & Co., and Singer, Munick & Co., of Fittsburg: Jersey City Steel Works, Midvalle Steel Works, of Pennsylvama; Newark Steel Works, Mr. Alta; the Fort Pitt Steel Works, J. O. Carpenter. The object of the convention is to perfect arrangements for securing strict adhesion to the list prices, which, it is asserted, have been cut by some manufacturers to rates that are unremunerative. The convention was called to order at 1 o'clock, and there were six teen persons present. Mr. Guthrie, of Hussey, Howe & Co., secretary of the Association of Crucible Steel Makers, an association composed of the leading steel manufacturers in the United States, issued the call for it. The convention was held with closed doors, and it was not concluded until six o'clock. Previous to adjournment, one of the delegates made a motion, in benalf of the firm he represented, that "the prices should stand just as they are row." The motion caused considerable discussion, but was finally carried.

At the close of the meeting none of the delegates would give information in regard to the business which had been transacted. Mr. Guthrie, who was secretary of the convention, said that "the meeting was of no importance whatever to the pubne, and for that matter it might just as well have been held in Pittsburg, except for the fact that the manufacturers did not wis to disturb their laborers." The firms represented at the meeting have millions of capital and control the crucible steel manufacturing interests of the country. The convention will meet again to-day.

MYERS STILL TROUBLED BY HIS COLD. L. E. Myers, the runner, returned from his trip to Baltimore yesterday. To a Tribune reporter who saw him soon after his arrival he said: "I am feeling much better than before I went to Baltimore, although I have not been able to get rid of my coid."

when asked if he felt as well as he did before his sickness, he replied; "Yes; but it is a question if I shall be able to run as well with this cold." Mr. Myers went to Baltimote in the hope that the milder climate of that city would assis in putting hum in a condition to run to-merrow in the last of his races with George, warm weather being always the best for him. While there he has exercised daily, but has made no trial runs. He has gained six pounds and now weighs 116. His face had a healthy color last night, and he expressed a determination to make the race interesting at all events.

ADMITTING PART OF THE CLAIM.

A decision was handed down by Judge Wallace in the United States Circuit Court ye-terday in the action of Louis A. Von Hoffmann, William Mertens and Robert Reutler, of the firm of L. Von Hoffmann & Co., against the Pacific Railway Improvemen. Company. In 1880 the detentant corporation advertised for subscriptions to the first mortgage bonds of the Texas and Pacific Railway to aid in constructing the line from Fort Worth to the Rio Grande, a distance of 600 miles. The bonds were of the denomination of $1,000 and to bear 6 per cent interest annually. The instalments were to be paid as the money was required, the company agreeing to pay interest on the instalments from the time of payment. The plaintiffs subscribed for $50,000 of the bonds and became nolders by assumment of fitty-seven other certificates, representing about $200,000. The instalments were all paid, and when the time for adjusting the interest arrived there was a dispute as to the amount due, the defendant corporation claiming that it was only obliged to pay interest up to the time that it was ready to deliver the bonds. The plaintiffs wanted interest up to the time when the bonds would, by the coupons remaining attached, begin to draw interest, and claimed $253,176 17. The corporation in its answer admitted $15,384 of 2 to be due, and Judge Wallace or dered judgment for that amount, without prejudice to the paintiffs continuing the action for the recovery of the rest of the claim.
